

This is the vow these individuals took to become Jubilee! ministers:

“Recognizing your sense of delight and commitment to living a life of love, acceptance, generosity, equality, forgiveness, silliness, compassion, joy and justice; and recognizing the happiness you find in guiding all kinds of people to openness and fullness in faith, and recognizing your commitment to celebrate:

- that all creation expresses and reveals god
- that diversity of faith enriches every human life
- that we are called to love with all our heart, soul, mind and strength
- that Mother Earth is sacred and merits our commitment to honor, enjoy and protect her
- that unrelenting forgiveness, compassion and love are worth living for
- that all people deserve justice and love no matter what gender, race, age, religion, nationality, sexual orientation, physical or mental abilities
- that love is verb which continually calls us to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, bring rest to the weary, care for the earth and work for peace

We, therefore, desire to ordain you to the ministry of Jubilee! Community. We offer you ordination – a privilege bestowed on us by the nature of our free church.

Among us and wherever you may be called to serve, we would have you teach, counsel, preach and live the wisdom, wonder and fullness of life; and to keep always before you the joyful affirmation that the main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing. Are you ready to enter upon this ministry?”

To which all responded with a resounding “OH YEAH!”
